

Happy 2011 Everyone!

The Ragodos family greets you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We just want to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have given to us so generously. We understand how hard things are in the economic world and we are so blessed you continue to support the ongoing work with the youth of the Philippines. We have no idea of the ripples their lives will produce throughout eternity as a result of our combined efforts. Without you and your continual kindness to us we cannot do the labor God has entrusted to us, thank you.

All glory to God!

Abby's Adoption Process

Abigail's adoption has been postponed. We had a court hearing scheduled then rescheduled for January 5. When we arrived at the courthouse we were really surprised to be the only people in the building. Our lawyer informed us the family court judge (whom we have been waiting a year to see) resigned just the day before. We see this not as a terrible Filipino occurrence but the hand of the Lord in our lives. We recognize His Sovereignty over this situation and we believe the Lord is protecting us through each step. We have not heard anymore from the lawyer, they are still attempting to fill the empty position in the family court. Please pray with us the judge that is placed will be a judge of compassion and righteousness.
